RITES HERE TODAY

S. ADLER RETURNS FROM HUDSON MEET

Saul Adler, Montoe Hudson automebile dealer, had returned here yesterday from Shreveport, where the new Hudson 112 was unveiled for the first time in north Louisians. "Sunshine" Oliver, from the Hudson factory in Detroit, was on hand for the ceremony and stated that the factory is already swinging into full production, and volume shipments of this new entry in the lowest price field are now being

The announcement of this new car, along with the fact that Hudson is restoring jobs to 6,000 men and spending $11,000,000 for material, created a nation-wide stir last week. Coming at a time when news of lay-offs and retrenchment had become common, the announcement was hailed as introducing a new optimistic note into the general business situation.

What Religion Really Means

One of the common expressions runs something like this: "Yes, I once got religion, but it didn't take."

In that expression one can see why there is so much lack of real adoration of God and genuine spiritual service among the so-called religious. A person may think that all he has to do is to make a profession of faith, join a church. and his spiritual experience is settled forever and ever. Such a person regards getting religion as like getting vaccinated -he imagines that all there is to it is having something injected into him and letting it work while he sleeps.

The bald fact is, living the religious life is a fight-8 constant fight—with the forces of evil. When a person joins a church he has not by any means set his spiritual difficultion behind him so he can rest supine henceforth. On the con- months before the case came up on a created crust docket. MAIN TENET OF SAFETY

Safety on the highways is principally an attitude of

Better care and roads will not attain it. Indeed, they tend toward the apposite result. It has long been the experience that when a stretch of poor road is consected into a broad, straight, amonth highway the number of accidents increases... because motorists are restunate the safety factor They lose the sense of raution that a poor road naturally creates mand the death and injury rate booths.

The same thing is true of automobiles. The manufact set furers give us care with better brakes, some steering more perfectly balanted bodies and the gluce the next the next the next to the next the following of the following the following the period of the next to the following the fo where the automobile accident rate breaks all records,

The "safety attitude" isn't a particularly difficult one see secret to develop. It is simplify to derive as we'd like the car ago. BUNNING OFF THE FILM We sat, good neighbors tried and true, And watched an ancient film unfold. Here were those happy days we knew, Glad mornings bright with youthful gold!

Our bubles toddled down the street. The neighborhood was new and clean. The film untwined its magic feet. And whished us to a bygone scene.

You were so young and slim and straight, Wheeling our baby in a pram, Our mother lingered at the gate, Smiling at you and our wee lamb.

Rushing from school, our little girl, (Now a young lady, tell and fair) Brought back to us the distant whirl Of days of constant toil and prayer,

Here was the tapestry we wove In our beginning years! We saw The joyful evidence of love, The sweetness of the marriage law

We sat there more enthralled than hy The greatest picture in the land! You knew I struggled not to cry I felt the pressure of your hand! (Copyright, 1939)

Paul Csonka, Head Of Organization, Tells How Mi Salzburg Opera Guild Was Formed

Adding considerable luster to the month of February will be the concert presented in this city by the Salzburg Opera guild under the auspices of the Civic Music association on Sunday, February 6.

The event will be one of exceeding elegance, attracting representative musicians of the city and most of the patrons

A statement by Paul Csonka, head of this famous company of musicians, will be read with interest:

'Our company was born out of rebellion and dissatisfaction, in the have gained individual glory in the summer of 1934. Time marches on. The old gives place to the new and especially in Delta Beta Sigma sorority circles where members are constantly toiling upward and onward. With wings outspread new heights have been attained with the possession of a sorority house the initial goal in the upward flight.

There was a time when a high school sorority was looked upon with disfavor by faculty members who sensed the disastrous effects upon students who were not admitted to the charmed circle. Much of the disfavor has vanished with the years, however, and the D B. S. membership has member by learn and bounds.
